Dear Parents,

It has been a while that we reached out to you. We trust that you and your family are staying safe and healthy. These days, we have entered in an unfamiliar territory which has become the new reality.

We had earlier also informed you that teachers of DAVPS, Jasola Vihar taking online classes with full sincerity. We seek your cooperation towards 100% attendance from your ward. Our aim of giving education to all students even during the lock down period just reflects that we at DAV Jasola Vihar are committed to our values of sincerity, responsibility and striving for excellence in all our endeavours.

We are looking forward to normalcy being restored with the students and teachers back in the school premises. Till then let us stand together with the nation to fight against the pandemic.

Regards,

Dr. V. K. Barthwal
Principal
